

vinAyakar pOtri

Vinayakar or Lord Ganesha is the foremost of all deities and is in an Omkara form. He is also the lord of kethu gruha (planet). It is customary to start any worship with a prayer to Lord Ganesha to reap the fruits of the worship without hurdles.

He is worshiped on Mondays, Chathurthis (4th day from no-moon or full-moon) and on Tuesday Raahukalam.

Worship method: Lord Ganesha is worshiped during the morning or evening hours. Plant a bindi (Turmeric and kumkum) on Lord Ganesha's forehead, light a simple lamp, offer him some fragrant flowers, beetle leaf-nut and a simple prasadam (sugar cakes, jaggery, sugar or any sweet). On the above-mentioned special occasions, one may offer Ganesha his favourite prasadam, such as rice flakes (poha), puffed rice, mothakam, fruits etc.

Chant the below POtri with a pure mind and complete the worship with an arathi.

Note: We have tried our best to bring out the original Tamil pronunciation in this document. We suggest you read the below POtrigal along with the audio (can be downloaded as mp3 from our website <https://pallikaranaisakthi.org/downloads>) during the first few occasions.
